

PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, the overwhelming majority of the youth of the United States and Canada are constructive, responsible citizens who receive altogether too little recognition of their achievements; and

WHEREAS, the men of Optimist International have dedicated themselves to promoting community-wide recognition of our fine young people during Youth Appreciation Week each fall; and

WHEREAS, the citizens of South Dakota have indicated they wish to join the Optimists in expressing their pride in our youth and their approval of the many fine things they are doing to improve both themselves and our community;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, NILS A. BOE, Governor of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim the period of November 13-19, 1967, as--

YOUTH APPRECIATION WEEK

In the State of South Dakota, with the sincere hope that every adult will not only stop to think about the many plus qualities of the younger generation, but actively recognize the individuals and collective attributes and achievements of as many young people as they can possibly reach, so that our citizens of tomorrow may fully realize that we are confident in their ability to build and govern the bright world of the future.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and affixed the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this 13th day of November, in the Year of Our Lord, Nineteen Hundred and Sixty-seven.
